A modern hotel building at night, illuminated by warm interior lights. The building features multiple stories with large windows and balconies. A sign on the left side of the building reads "JÜSTA RASA". In the foreground, there is a swimming pool with a blue mosaic tile pattern. The pool is surrounded by a wooden deck with several lounge chairs and tables. A large tree stands in the center of the courtyard, and a bar area is visible on the right side of the building. The sky is dark blue, and the overall atmosphere is peaceful and luxurious.

RISHIKESH UTTARAKHAND

Rishikesh, the ‘place of the sages’, is a celebrated spiritual town located on the banks of the Ganga. Surrounded by the Shivalik range of the Himalayas on three sides, it holds a deep cultural and spiritual significance for its visitors. It is believed that when Raibhya Rishi undertook rigorous penance, God appeared in the form of “Hrishikesh” and henceforth this area came to be known as Rishikesh.

It is the starting point for the Hindu Char Dham pilgrimage, including Yamunotri, Gangotri, Kedarnath and Badrinath, to seek spiritual salvation. Rishikesh is an ideal destination not only for pilgrims but also for those who want to delve deeper into spirituality, yoga, and other ancient practices. Sacred rivers and mountains provide the perfect setting for yoga and reflective hikes. Rishikesh is also called the ‘Yoga capital of the world’.
